You that love the feasts, let us gather and sing the praises of the fair ornament of bishops, the glory of the Fathers, the fount of wonders and the great protector of the faithful. Let us say: Rejoice, [guardian of the people . . . ] guardian of the people of My - ra, their chief and honored counselor and the pillar that can - not be moved! Re - joice, light filled with bright - ness! You make the ends of the world shine with won - ders. Re - joice, divine delight of the af - flict - ed, the fer - vent advocate of those who [suffer from injustice! ]

suffer from in - jus - tice! And now, all-blessed Nicholas, never cease praying to Christ our God // for those who honor the high feast of your memorial with faith and love!"
